Program Description
The Department of Classical and Modern Languages and Literature will offer an Italian language program in Catania, Italy. Students will have the unique opportunity to work toward fluency in Italian while being exposed to real Italian culture. Students will be able to earn up to 6 hours of course credit for their MSU degree. The University of Catania is a prestigious university in Catania, city located on the east coast of the island Sicily, at the foot of the Mount Etna. Along with taking language and culture classes, students will have abundant opportunities for tourism and cultural immersion, and should be able to markedly improve their Italian communication skills. This program offers immersion in the Italian language.
